

I am writing to complain about Sinclair Broadcasting Group's blatant violation of Federal Election Laws in their attempt to air a slanderous opinion piece about a presidential candidate, under the guise of "news", just before the National Election.

This is an outrageous abuse of the public's airwaves, and further, underscores the need to put restraints on media conglomerates who use public airwaves for the purpose of furthering partisan opinion. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.
